A Message from Pastor Mary Bope

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. (NIV)

It goes without saying that we are living in difficult times. The current pandemic has significantly altered how we spend our time. Many of us have been isolated and are unable to go out or spend meaningful time with family and friends. The writer of Ecclesiastes, writing under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, knew there would be times like these. God is not surprised by the onset of these troubled times. It is my prayer that you can find comfort in knowing that God is always with us in good times and in bad and that one day a time will come when we will be forever healed, spending eternity in the presence of Our Savior, Jesus!
